PROGRAMME MARCH - SEPTEMBER 2025

WELCOME TO THE NEXT SEASON

One of the highlights of the programme is the annual St Patrick's Celebrations Concert which takes place on Friday 7 March. An evening of lively Irish traditional and folk music awaits as the concert is headlined by Tiny Green Island. Also performing are local traditional musicians Michael Conlon and Deirbhle Canavan, children from the Traditional Music in Schools Programme with Donald Canavan (supported through Mid Ulster District Council Arts Programme) and talented Irish dancer, Niamh Fox who is current Irish National Champion and Ulster Champion. Malachi Cush will compère the event.

As always, there is a packed programme of workshops, exhibitions and activities for families and school children. An action-packed Easter Family Fun Day takes place on Saturday 12 April (from 12 noon - 2pm) with a Quiet Hour from 10.30am - 11.30am. Mr Hullabaloo, the magical storyteller is back on the Burnavon stage during the Easter holidays (Wednesday 23 April) with 'Spring into Spring'. And why not wear your favourite Superhero costume and join us for the interactive, theatrical experience 'Rise of the Superhero' which comes to the Burnavon Theatre for the first time on Saturday 7 June.

There is also lots on offer for country music fans with 'A Night with the Country Stars' (24 April), 'The Ultimate Shindig' (31 May), 'The Summer Country Show' (12 June), and 'The Legends of American Country Show' (13 September).

If you enjoy music from the 1950s and 60s, then you will love Martin Lynch's new comedy with music 'Thursdays with Elvis' on 3 April and 'The Soda Popz 1950s

Rock'n'Roll Show' which is coming to the Burnavon stage on Saturday 20 September!

Finally, Paddy Raff is back entertaining audiences with his new show 'Here's One for Ya!' on Saturday 27 September. We look forward to welcoming you to the Burnavon Theatre this season.

The Burnavon Team

Helpful hints for your visit

Arrive on time; all shows start at the time advertised in the programme, and once curtain is up latecomers may not gain admission until the interval. To save time at the interval pre-order any drinks you require at the first-floor bar which is open to patrons before, during and after performances.

Cameras and recording devices are not permitted in the auditorium without prior permission from Burnavon management. All mobile phones must be switched off out of consideration for the enjoyment of other patrons. Food, drink, E-cigarettes, and vaporisers are not permitted in the auditorium. Smoking, E-cigarettes, and vaporisers are not permitted inside the building.

Cookstown Youth Choir in Concert with Peter Corry (H)

Presented by Cookstown Youth Choir

Cookstown Youth Choir is delighted to welcome as special guest, Peter Corry. Peter has travelled the globe with his unique sound and timeless classics. His astonishing talent spans the great musicals, opera, rock, jazz and the haunting melodies of his native isle.

With violinist Plunkett McGartland, traditional musician Oisín McCann, and the Youth Choir's varied programme, this concert promises to be an evening of top-quality entertainment.

Truth, Love or Promise (H)

Presented by Nuala McKeever

To celebrate 40 years of Cruse Bereavement's support work, Nuala McKeever presents her smash hit comedy drama – Truth, Love or Promise. In this powerful, poignant and hilarious one woman show, Nuala plays 3 women who meet at a Creative Writing class in Belfast.

Over the weeks, Brenda, Maureen and Joanna get to know each other through their stories. But it's the things they're leaving out, that really tell the tale.

This play deals sensitively with themes of loss, grief and how to deal with life when it doesn't turn out the way you expected. There will be a post-show chat with Nuala.

This performance is a fundraiser in aid of Cruse Bereavement Support

An Evening with Johnny McEvoy in Concert (H)

Presented by Tom Kelly Promotions

The term 'living legend' is sometimes loosely accredited to artists in the music business but certainly not when people speak about Johnny McEvoy.

Johnny's songs are hauntingly beautiful and evocative, always presented with an individuality that is unmistakably his own unique style. One can truthfully state that Johnny has been one of the most enduring and talented singer songwriters in the Folk/Ballad genre in Ireland over the past 50 years. His concert performances are second to none. The lyrical clarity of Johnny's vocals combined with gentle backing from excellent musicians is a joy to listen to and ensures a wonderful and joyful evening of 'Song and Story'

THURSDAYS WITH ELVIS by Martin Lynch

Presented by GBL Productions

Lana is a single mother of 12-year-old Libby. She struggles with the cost of living and the rising price of Prosecco, whilst trying to survive on Universal Credit.

She can't even afford a night out. So, every Thursday night she and her wee Christian friend, Mary Magdalene Miriam, doll themselves up and have a wee drink and listen to Lana's mother's music from the 1950s and 60s. She gets the shock of her life when one Thursday night Elvis appears - and returns every week. Is this rock n' roll apparition real, imagined or an impersonator sent by her Elvis-obsessed father?

Music features strongly in this comedy with Lana singing some of the greatest female songs of the 50s and 60s.

Date: Thursday 3 April

Show Time: 8pm

Disability and Inclusive Arts

Presented by BEAM Creative Network

Presented by BEAM Creative Network and clients from multiple centres, satellite units and hubs.

Through Mid Ulster District Council's Community Arts Plan artists from BEAM Creative Network have been able to work with clients from multiple centres, satellite units and hubs, on an exciting creative project. All the clients have been hands on in creating many artworks from textile art to paintings. This collaboration of work will be exhibited in the Burnavon during May 2025 and then returning to the relevant centres as permanent pieces for everyone to enjoy.

Date:

Thursday 1 May – Friday 30 May

Grace Scott Art Exhibition

Presented by Grace Scott

Grace returns to The Burnavon in June 2025 after many years to exhibit her work. This art exhibition offers an exciting opportunity for followers and the public to see how Grace's work has evolved over time. Throughout the years, Grace has stayed true to her passion for pastels and continued painting her subjects in a realistic style - each one infused with life and character.

There will be a launch event in the exhibition Space on Friday 6 June (7pm - 9pm) with light refreshments. All originals will be for sale throughout the month of June.

Date:

Monday 2 June – Monday 30 June
